

ROCKW

The Rotary Club of San Francisco West

Meetings: Tuesday mornings, 7:30 a.m., Lakeside Restaurant, Ocean Ave

March 31st, 2008

WELCOME TODAY'S SPEAKER

David Bigeleisen

David Bigeleisen, attorney and member, San Francisco #2 club. Mr. Bigeleisen's private practice work includes preparation and trials in all kinds of cases, including commercial securities, tort, real estate, juvenile and criminal matters. He particularly emphasizes child molestation and rape cases. He also serves as a Superior Court arbitrator and judge pro tem. Mr. Bigeleisen is a lecturer at U.C. Hastings College of Law, College of Trial and Appellate Advocacy. The State Bar of California awarded him the Wiley Manual Award for Outstanding Pro Bono Work, and the Bar Association of San Francisco awarded him Outstanding Lawyer in Community Service. He has had several articles published in legal and other publications. Mr. Bigeleisen earned his A.B. at Cornell and his J.D. at the University of San Diego. Film photography is his hobby; he likes to do both portraits and landscapes, both color and black and white. Today's topic is "My life in court."

The 10 best reasons why you should go to the Conference.

- 1 Celebrate the Rotary year.
- 2 Learn how the District's efforts are making a difference.
- 3 Discover new ideas and resources for your club.
- 4 Be inspired – by speakers and colleagues.
- 5 Re-connect with friends.
- 6 Meet new people and make new friends.
- 7 Eat, drink, and be merry.
- 8 Enjoy one of the most stunning places in the world.
- 9 Win or purchase something wonderful while contributing to Rotary.
- 10 Kick up your heels – dance, laugh a lot, and have plenty of fun!

Don't miss this!

The Final Inch is a documentary about Rotary's PolioPlus campaign which will be showing on HBO2 on Wednesday, April 1, 2009 at 8:00 p.m.

This film, produced by HBO and funded by Google, was nominated for an Academy Award this year. HBO plans to show it more times in the future, so check their schedule for viewing times. So you may tell all your family and friends to check this out and it will give them a better idea of why we give of our time, resources and ourselves.

Next week is our Board Meeting (focus to be on our Membership Event)

